DETC Faculty Handbook - Perry Jehlicka We are waiting to here back from the Faculty Senate on the proposed definitions from the fall semester. We are also waiting on feedback form sections of the DETC Faculty Handbook that has contract language. We would like feedback so we are on the same page as the union contract. Getting the feedback on these two aspects are important aspects in our revision of this document. C. There five sections that were built and ent over. There are the front page which is overall distance education page and then links to: class schedule, learning-orientation, student resources, and faculty resources. Alex pointed out that as the committee sees the need for changes Greg will be able to assist in that to help keep the site up to date with the changes that may occur in distance education. D. Local POCR/Norming Update Perry took part in the POCR norming meeting put on by the CVC. The Local requirements are changing for becoming a certified Local POCR campus.
