

Integrated Planning & Budgeting Cycle

The Antelope Valley Community College District Integrated Planning and Budgeting Cycle depicts how the components in the district planning and budgeting process connect to the mission, vision and values and link in the cycle of evaluation which includes data analysis, plan implementation, institutional effectiveness, resource allocation, communication and feedback.