Grant Writing Fundamentals

An invigorating, informative, hands-on workshop created for new and experienced grant writers, executive directors, organizers, board members, community volunteers, development officers and individuals who want a detailed look at the grant writing process. Participants will be introduced to relevant information for a successful grant proposal. You will learn:

- ❖ How funding is announced
- ❖ How applications will be judged
- ❖ How to construct each element of a winning proposal

Register with Corporate & Community Services for this course.
