The "I'm Going to College" program is designed to:

- Create an awareness in elementary school children of higher education, and instill in them the attainable goal of attending college.
- Review with students the different college systems and the importance of attending college.
- Cover the steps of applying for admissions and financial aid.
- Offer the chance for participants to become a "college student for a day" by visiting the campus of Antelope Valley College.

Program is open to all 2010–2011 4th grade students. One parent per student is required to attend.

PARTICIPANTS MUST RSVP BY JULY 30, 2010
