

Math Study Strategies

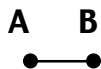

Basic Geometry Concepts

Point is a location. Point has no size and covers no area.

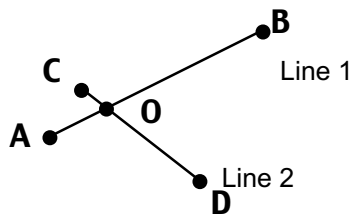

Line connects at least two points.

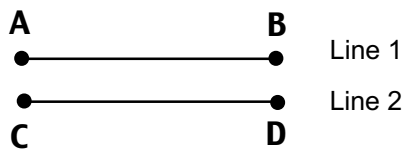

Line segment is a part of a line having two endpoints.

If two lines meet at a point, they are called intersecting lines.

If two lines do not meet if they are extended, they are called parallel lines.

If two lines meet at a right angle, they are perpendicular lines.

