

26 -27 Cert. Career and College Success Certificate (Noncredit)

ABOUT THIS MAJOR

This non-credit certificate program equips students with vital skills for achieving academic excellence and exploring various career paths. This program consists of two concise courses designed to provide students with essential strategies for academic success, practical tools for transferring to universities including CSU and UC institutions, and valuable resources for career development. This certificate program is designed for individuals who are new to their studies, those who are re-entering higher education, and those who are still considering their options. The program aims to foster confidence and provide clear direction for academic pursuits. The certificate is granted after successful completion of both HD 900 and HD 901. For more information, visit the Arts & Humanities division.
