

ABOUT THIS MAJOR

The Associate in Arts in Chicana/o Studies, Latina/o Studies for Transfer (AA-T in Chicana/o Studies, Latina/o Studies) degree provides students with interdisciplinary research methods, theories, and concepts to critically examine the experiences, communities, and histories of Mexican Americans and U.S. Latinas, Latinos, and Latine populations. The AA-T in Chicana/o Studies, Latina/o Studies at Antelope Valley College equips students with the analytical, critical thinking, and creative skills necessary to explore the lives and experiences of Mexican Americans and Latinas/os throughout the country. This program enhances students' abilities to effectively communicate with diverse audiences, preparing them for careers in a multi-ethnic workforce and empowering them to work toward social justice. Graduates of this program will be well-prepared for roles in non-profit organizations, education, social work, human services, health care, law and policy, as well as planning and development. For more information, visit the Social and Behavioral Sciences division.
