

ABOUT THIS MAJOR

Students who complete the associate degree have enhanced employability in the field of aviation maintenance. They have enhanced promotional opportunities into supervisory and management positions as they gain experience with various agencies. The associate degree will also provide students with a broad range of knowledge with which to evaluate and appreciate the physical environment, the culture, and the society in which they live and with the ability to think and communicate clearly and effectively. The requirements for an associate degree in General Aircraft Maintenance may be satisfied by completing 15 units of required courses, selecting an additional 3 units from the restricted list of program electives, 21 units of general education requirements, and sufficient elective credits to total 60 units. (See Graduation/ Associate Degree Requirements.) Students who complete the associate degree have enhanced employability in the field of aviation maintenance. The Airframe Manufacturing Technology baccalaureate degree builds off of two existing high quality, successful programs that have provided well trained employees to meet the needs in our communities for many years. By expanding these programs to include the opportunity to earn a baccalaureate degree, Antelope Valley College will now fill the need of local employers for a highly skilled lead worker in the same field and will provide a valuable opportunity for both our students and our community.
