VI. Informational Items – AP, CLEP, and IB – C-ID List – Credit by Exam List – Acceptance of Non-Traditional Credit – Emergency Medical Technician (EMT) License (current) - Credit given for EMT License in satisfaction of degree requirements where EMT 101 is listed as an option – 9 units (see list) - 9 units – EMT 101 – Registered Respiratory Therapist (RRT) Credential (current) AND completed CoARC accredited Associate of Science degree comparable to the AVC Associate of Science in Respiratory Care - Credit given for RRT Credential in satisfaction of BSRC requirements – 70 units (see list) - 6 units - RCP 101 - 1 unit - RCP 102 - 6 units - RCP 103 - 3 units - RCP 104 - 5 units - RCP 105 - 5 units - RCP 201 - 4 units - RCP 202 - 6 units - RCP 203	Dr. Jonathan Compton /Dr. Kathy Bakhit/ Dr. Jessica Eaton/ Dr. Wendy Stout	Jessica: Yearly review of the AP, CLEP, IB, and the Credit by Exam lists. Please share with your divisions. Last year, significant changes were made. Dr. Eaton shared that she has met faculty who were not aware that these lists existed. Dr. Eaton directly asked that the LACA division consider removing languages for which there is no instructor that can offer the exam (e.g., Chinese, Latin). By leaving these options on the list, a student can pay their fee and expect to be given the opportunity to take the exam. Please consider removing any course where there is no faculty that is able to offer an exam for the listed course. The Chancellor's Office is strongly promoting the use of Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) beyond the already recognized AP, IB, CLEP, and Credit by Exam. AVC already awards credit for non-traditional coursework (e.g., Airframe and Powerplant license). However, there are added licenses, certifications, military credit, etc. that must be considered based on the guidelines that are being provided to community colleges. The information listed on the agenda for EMT and RRT are the examples of how this type of CPL will be brought to the curriculum committee (AP&P). It is important that faculty be involved in these decisions. By bringing this information to AP&P, there is a record to show that the decision was not solely an administrative decision.

- 9 units - RCP 204 - 4 units - BIO 201 - 4 units - BIO 202 - 5 units - CHEM 101 - 3 units - ENGL C1000 - 3 units - AVC GE AREA 2 (Math Requirement) - 3 units - COMM C1000 - 3 units - PSYC C1000 - Credit for Prior Learning (MAP Platform) - AP 4235, credit given "above the line" - Use of various ACE Recommendations, Exhibit ID number specified in report, to award credit for specific courses: - 2 units – WELD 101 - 2 units – WELD 110 - 9 units – EMT 101 - 3 units – HE 100 - Noncredit programs (incorrect hours) - 9 programs – fix through amend workflow for Fall 2025 by AAS team	The example listed: EMT 101, credit will be given for the class if a student has a current EMT license. Stout: This credit will go towards the degree in Fire Tech or EMT but not for any other degree. Question: Will there be a credit on their transcript? Eaton: It will show a full credit of 9 units. We are not stripping the units. Stout: It is not for the transcript it is for the license and the credential. Dean Stout was noting that individual courses will not be reviewed for course-to-course articulation at AVC. The course credit will be awarded (as listed) for students, if they choose that option, who have a current RRT credential. Stout: Clarified Statement Students who already hold the Registered Respiratory Therapist (RRT) credential are eligible to enter the BSRC program without having to complete the Associate of Science in Respiratory Care (ASRC) coursework. This is because all RRT-credentialed therapists have already met the same professional standards and competencies required of our ASRC graduates. Therefore, we recognize their prior preparation and grant them credit for the AS-level courses as part of their pathway into the BSRC program. Stout: RCP102 will be taken out. Rider: Another avenue for Credit for Prior Learning will be from the Military. In combination with MAP and the American Council of Certification (ACE), credit options are being reviewed. Van is meeting with Alfred. This will allow them to honor the veteran's work and allow for credit to be given in satisfaction of local AVC degrees and certificates. Looking to reduce the amount of time a student is in the program. This will allow them to use their work experience toward credit. Welding, EMT, HE 101, we will have KIN credit and the business department. 3 hours of leadership or supervision that will allow them to use the credit for that. The key is meeting the students where they are. This can lead to professional licenses and portfolios. Eaton: If we approve something for one student, we should be able to offer that to every student who has the same experience and credit. Once approved, this will be added to the Non-traditional Credit guidelines document. Rider: We want this to be a fluid process. We want to be able to act quickly to provide the best information when they meet with counselors. This will be the case for every other student as well. Jonathan: There are 9 noncredit programs that have incorrect hours. Robyn and Jamie are going to go through and correct those. Robyn: COCO chose to review some and not others. The ones they didn't review they auto approved so we must go back and change those.
