VIII. Action – Upper Division Unit Limitation removed ○ "The previous limitation on the number of upper-division units accepted has been discontinued. Eligible upper-division coursework may be applied toward degree completion on a case-by-case basis, subject to the residency requirement and faculty approval." – Degree awarding with discrepancies in the number of major units completed ○ An associate degree will be awarded when a student has satisfactorily completed all required general education, residency, and major requirements as specified in the college catalog. Consistent with Title 5 (§ 55061) and PCAH guidelines, the major for an associate degree must include a minimum of eighteen (18) semester units of degree-applicable coursework	Dr. Jonathan Compton/ Kathryn Mitchell/ Dr. Jessica Eaton	Action Taken Motion to Approve: Upper Division Unit Limitation removed Motion Second Motion Approved Motion to Approve: Degree awarding with discrepancies in the number of major units completed Motion Second Motion Approved in the major discipline or area of emphasis. In cases where variability in unit totals occurs due to course substitutions, curriculum revisions, articulation adjustments, or course unit differences across institutions, the college will award the degree provided that: ▪ All required major learning outcomes and content requirements have been met; and ▪ A minimum of eighteen (18) semester units in the major have been successfully completed. Variations in total units within the major that do not compromise the integrity, rigor, or learning outcomes of the program shall not preclude the awarding of the degree.
