

Spring 2022: Honors Courses are OPEN TO ALL!

For the first time at Antelope Valley College, Honors courses are open to any student.

Are you planning to transfer to a university?

Do you seek lively discussions with your peers and professors?

Interested in a seminar style lecture with smaller classroom sizes?

Curious to experience an honors class and see what it is like?

Want a deeper dive and understanding of the material?

ENROLL TODAY!

Those with at least a 3.0 GPA are HIGHLY encouraged to take this opportunity to explore.

Important Note:

You do not have to be in the Honors Program to enroll into the Honors courses.

You do have to be in the program to get the perks. Perks include: early priority enrollment, special recognition at graduation, invitation to the Honors convocation, honors notation on your transcript, honors certification for UCI and UCLA, and increase the likelihood that you transfer to your first choice university. Check out the Honors Program website for more details:
