

A.A. Human Services Degree 25-26

ABOUT THIS MAJOR

Students interested in working with people in service-oriented professions will find Human Services an excellent path to entering the helping profession. Studies in ethics, psychology, sociology and effective communication are core components of the courses in this degree.

Students majoring in Human Services will be prepared to enter positions in not-for-profit organizations, community and human services organizations, and related areas that provide services to individuals, families, and the community. Some positions include community advocates, peer counselors, case management aides, and social-services technicians. For more information, visit the Social and Behavioral Sciences division
