Students are required to maintain satisfactory academic progress to be eligible to participate in the work study program. It is the student's responsibility to stay informed of Antelope Valley College's satisfactory academic progress standards and to monitor his/her own progress. In some cases, mitigating circumstances may have contributed to your failure to meet the satisfactory academic progress standards for the specific semester. The student may submit this completed satisfactory academic progress appeal with any documentation. Incomplete appeals or appeals missing required documents will be returned to the student by mail.

YOU MUST BE ENROLLED IN THE SEMESTER YOU ARE APPEALING FOR.
