We will wait as long as possible to implement this change, in case we are saved by AB 928. At the same time, we will add the corequisite support class for Math 150. This will have an effect on scheduling in the future. D. Course leads should be completing CIPs. E. ChatGPT will generate good R code for students in statistics, if you ask the right question. However, the tool can also solve a lot of mathematical problems. The tool can also be used to generate a list of possible topics for students to work on. Students to ask the tool to make additional problems for practice. Instructors can ask it to generate test questions. Should the department have a policy around the use of ChatGPT?
