COMMUNITY COLLEGE PATHWAY TO LAW PROGRAM

In partnership between California Community Colleges and California Law Incorporated

This publication was funded by Student Equity. July 2018
Antelope Valley College prohibits discrimination and harassment based on race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, sex, age, or sexual orientation. Upon request, we will consider reasonable accommodations to permit individuals with protected disabilities to (a) complete the employment or admission process, (b) perform essential job functions, (c) enjoy benefits and privileges of similarly-situated individuals without disabilities, and (d) participate in instruction, programs, services, activities or events.
PATHWAY TO LAW PROGRAM
In partnership with the State Bar of California, the Pathway to Law School initiative enhances opportunities for advancement of Antelope Valley College students of diverse populations in the legal profession, particularly those who have been underrepresented in the practice of law.

WHY LAW?
The complexities of our legal system have created hundreds of legal career options, many of which do not require a law degree. The legal professional’s role is expanding and evolving to keep pace with the ever-changing legal system. The legal profession offers growth, opportunities, financial rewards, client service, intellectual challenge, prosperity, and prestige in diverse areas: criminal law; corporate law; tax law; real estate law; family law; products liability; patent law; employment law; educational law and dozens of other areas. Given the legal field’s diversity, no particular major is required.
