Please join us in "Indaba"

Indaba is a Zulu word for "important meeting" that seeks "to gather the right people together at the right time to discuss the right issues." The Indaba emphasizes "deep talk" and acknowledges that we all have something important to say.

Mission Statement

Umoja (a Kiswahili word meaning unity) is a community and critical resource dedicated to enhancing the cultural and educational experience of African American and other at-risk students.

We believe that when the voices and histories of students are deliberately and intentionally recognized, the opportunity for self-efficacy emerges and a foundation is formed for academic success.
