

IRES programs were separated. Instructional Media is now under ITS and discussed in the Executive Council report. The Library reports independently. The Learning Center is reviewed with the Language Arts division.