Comments about the self-study report

The Information/Welcome Center (Outreach) has been providing an increasing number of programs and services to students, especially since 3SP, FYE, and TV funds have been available.

Recommendations to the program

This area needs to continue to scale its efforts, improve its processes, and expand its services to include even more students in the coming years.

Comments to the program

The area does a good job of gathering feedback from students regarding its programs and services and using that input to further improve the student experience. The report was well organized and written.

The 2015-16 Information/Welcome Center (Outreach) self-study report has been reviewed and accepted by the Program Review Committee.
