EMT 101 EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN (EMT)

Limitation on Enrollment: Upon successful completion of final written and skills exams, students must also complete additional requirements, including a minimum of 24 hours of ambulance/clinical experience, 12 hours of additional homework including online FEMA courses, resume' creation, and National Registry Exam test review using an approved text. Students must also obtain a specific medical exam, including TB testing and specific immunizations and/or proof of immunizations and a criminal background check, as detailed by the instructor. Students must be able to meet the physical demands of working on an emergency ambulance, such as eyesight, hearing, speech, bending, squatting, lifting, climbing stairs, or other physical requirements as may be necessary for such work. The student's final grade is contingent upon the successful completion of all mandatory requirements of this course by a specified deadline. Failure to complete all requirements will result in a grade of "D" in the course.

ENGL 100A *ACADEMIC STRATEGIES

4 units

4 hours weekly

Advisory: Completion of or Concurrent enrollment in READ 095 or READ 099, Completion of ESL course sequence.

This course is designed to assist and empower students as they encounter and navigate different college learning environments. It emphasizes the foundational writing skills needed to succeed in these environments, as well as the importance of critical awareness, reading skills, and textual analysis. Also included is a brief introduction to research strategies. Throughout the course, students will compose, revise, and collect various writings that will determine their eligibility for ENGL 101, Academic Composition. NOTE: No letter grade will be given for this course; students will receive only "pass" or "no pass" based solely on the score of their eligible final portfolio, a collection of their work that is evaluated by faculty readers using the departmental rubric. (Credit course not applicable to the associate degree and certificate programs.)
