Program Description

All Communication Studies courses, whether they are broadly conceived courses in effective communication, critical inquiries into the nature of human communication or the media, or professionally-oriented exercises in writing and producing a newspaper, are aimed at developing critical discernment and equipping the student with the theoretical, aesthetic, and technical means to communicate these insights effectively to others.

COMM 101 helps students improve their formal speaking skills. It satisfies the Oral Communication requirement for transfer to the California State University system and the Communication and Analytical Thinking requirement for the associate degree. COMM 103 also fulfills the California State University system Oral Communication requirement for IGETC. COMM 105 gives students an overview of the breadth of Mass Communication and is required for transfer students to CSUN in Journalism and the Communication Studies Option.

Distinctive Features

The program allows students to explore the many contexts of communication. Students are exposed to many different teaching techniques and a variety of learning opportunities, both theoretical and practical. Critical thinking and collaborative learning are stressed.

Career Options

The ability to organize one's thoughts and present them with clarity and precision is an asset in all careers. Communication skills are especially applicable to the following occupations:

Advertising	Marketing
Advocacy	Media Management
Arbitration	Motivational Speaking
Broadcasting: radio and television	Negotiation
Corporate Training	Personnel Manager
Counseling	Public Information Officer
Customer Service	Public Relations
Director of Registration (College)	Radio/TV Announcer
Entertainment	Religious Leadership
Fundraising	Sales
Government/Politics	Speech-Writer
Health Communication	Sports Broadcaster/
Human Resources	Communications/Reporting
Journalist	Teacher (all levels and all disciplines)
Lawyer	Tour Guide(s)
Legal Support Services
Lobbyist

(Careers may require education beyond the two-year college level.)

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Program majors will demonstrate and articulate professional verbal expression.
2. Through active listening, program majors will critically analyze verbal and non-verbal messages in a variety of contexts.
3. Program majors will make ethical communication decisions based on an understanding of cultural diversity.

Certificate Program

Certificate not applicable.

Associate Degree

Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer

The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer (AA-T in Communication Studies) degree offers students a comprehensive course of study of the many facets of human communication. Public speaking and performance, interpersonal and group communication, argumentation, and mass media are some of the contexts studied. Students will enhance their own communication practices in professional and personal settings, as well as study theories and concepts that examine the impact of communication on relationships and society at large.

The Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer (AA-T in Communication Studies) degree meets the requirements of SB 1440 for Associate Degrees for Transfer (ADT). These degrees are intended to make it easier for students to transfer to California State University campuses, but do not exclude admittance to other colleges or universities.

To earn an Associate in Arts in Communication Studies for Transfer (AA-T in Communication Studies) degree a student must complete the following:

(1) Completion of 60 semester units or 90 quarter units that are eligible for transfer to the California State University, including both of the following:

(A) The Intersegmental General Education Transfer Curriculum (IGETC) or the California State University General Education – Breadth Requirements.

(B) A minimum of 18 semester units or 27 quarter units in a major or area of emphasis, as determined by the community college district.

(2) Obtainment of a minimum grade point average of 2.0.

ADTs also require that students must earn a “C” or better in all courses required for the major or area of emphasis.

Transfer

Students planning to continue studies at a four-year college or university after AVC should visit the Transfer Resource Center and consult with a counselor as soon as possible. Additional information on official transfer articulation agreements from AVC to many CSU/UC campuses can be found at www.assist.org

Prerequisite Completion

All prerequisite courses must be completed with a satisfactory grade in order to enroll in the next course. According to Title 5, Section 55200(d), a satisfactory grade is a grade of “A,” “B,” “C” or “P”. Classes in which the Pass/No Pass option is available are indicated with an asterisk (*) before the course title. See “Pass/No Pass Option” in the catalog for full explanation.
