Chinese Courses

CHIN 101 *ELEMENTARY CHINESE I

5 units

5 hours weekly

Advisory: Eligibility for ENGL 101 or placement by multiple measures.

This course is intended for students who have no background in Mandarin Chinese or any Chinese dialect. Students will be introduced to the fundamentals of Mandarin—pronunciation, syntax, and high-frequency vocabulary—through drills and exercises designed to mimic authentic situations commonly encountered in China and that enable students to practice speaking, reading, writing, and listening. This course helps students acquire some knowledge of Chinese customs, society, and history, especially as they elucidate the language and culturally appropriate behaviors. (CSU, UC, AVC)

CHIN 102 *ELEMENTARY CHINESE 2

5 units

5 hours weekly

Prerequisite: Completion of CHIN 101.

Chinese 102 is designed as a continuation for beginning learners who have successfully completed Chinese 101. The class continues to emphasize the development of students' reading, writing, speaking, and listening skills as well as their knowledge of basic vocabulary, syntax, and structures. As students' command of the fundamentals improves, they will be able to use language more creatively rather than be limited to imitation of familiar topics and sentence patterns. The course will continue to expose students to Chinese culture, especially those aspects that help elucidate the language and culturally appropriate behaviors. (CSU, UC, AVC)

CHIN 201 *INTERMEDIATE CHINESE*5 units5 hours weekly*Prerequisite: Completion of CHIN 102.

This course is for students who have completed Chinese 102 and wish to continue to develop their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. The basic structures and patterns of beginning Chinese will be reinforced, but complexity and variation will be introduced into structures as students are exposed to more idiomatic uses and learn a greater variety of particles and function words. Students continue to interact with language in authentic contexts, but the contexts expand beyond the situations of everyday survival to allow students to engage in conversations that facilitate the practice of various conversational strategies, such as expressing opinions, making concessions, offering detailed descriptions, and indicating doubts. The course will continue to introduce students to the history and culture of China, especially those aspects that will help students understand, reflect on, and adjust to norms, values, and customs when living or working in China. (CSU, UC, AVC)

CHIN 202 *INTERMEDIATE CHINESE*5 units5 hours weekly*Prerequisite: Completion of CHIN 201.

This course is for students who have completed Chinese 201 and wish to add complexity to and cement accuracy in their speaking, listening, reading, and writing skills. The basic structures and patterns of beginning Chinese will be reinforced, but complexity and variation will be introduced into structures as students are exposed to more idiomatic uses and learn a greater variety of particles and function words. Students will interact with more sophisticated authentic language in context in order to facilitate the practice of nuanced communicative strategies and techniques, such as offering praise, indicating disapproval, summarizing conflicting opinions, giving consent, advocating a position, and narrating events in greater detail and precision. The course will continue to introduce students to the history and culture of China, especially those aspects that will help students understand, reflect on, and adjust to norms, values, and customs when living or working in China.
