
Program Description

Reading involves understanding and interpreting written material. Critical reading and thinking skills are crucial for success in college and beyond. Most forms of employment require the ability to read, and people need to be able to evaluate many written materials in all areas of society, both online and in print. Reading improvement courses will help students build their skills and prepare them for other college courses.

Staff

Please dial (661) 722-6300, then the 4 digit extension.

Division:

Riley Dwyer, Dean	x.6463
Taylor Haynes, Administrative Assistant	x.6463
Samantha MacConnell, Clerical Assistant III	x.6463
Jane Bowers, Co-Department Chair	x.6947
Wendy Rider, Co-Department Chair	x.6702

Faculty:

Morenike Adebayo-Ige	x.6812
----------------------	--------

Adjunct Faculty:

Sergio Arroyo	V.M. 2144
Lisa Shabazian	2041
Regina Tillman	2055

Certificate Program

Certificate not applicable.

Associate Degree

Associate degree not available.

Transfer

Not a transfer major.

Reading Non Credit Courses

READ 095 READING SKILLS

3 hours weekly

A comprehensive, diagnostic-prescriptive program for students requiring basic reading skills, vocabulary development, and literal comprehension skills. NOTE: No grade will be given for course; student will receive “pass” or “no pass” only. (R unlimited)