A Message from Superintendent/President Jennifer Zellet, PhD

Thank you for joining us this evening as we celebrate the achievements of our graduates. Our students could not have achieved this milestone without the ongoing support of family, friends and their community. Antelope Valley College is both grateful and proud to support these graduates as they transition from this learning journey to the next chapter in their lives.

Having built a solid educational foundation, we are certain that our graduates are prepared for their futures. We know that they will be skilled employees, able and ready transfer students, and discerning citizens who contribute greatly to their communities. At Antelope Valley College, we succeed when our students and community partners succeed. We proudly say AVC SERVES!

Tonight, the Antelope Valley Community College District Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty and Classified Professionals join with families and friends of this graduating class to celebrate their accomplishments, and we know their future is full of promise.

Mensaje de Jennifer Zellet, PhD, Superintendente/Presidenta

Gracias por acompañarnos esta tarde en la celebración de los logros de nuestros graduados. Nuestros estudiantes no podrían haber logrado este logro sin el apoyo continuo de la familia, amigos y su comunidad. Antelope Valley College está agradecido y orgulloso de apoyar a estos graduados en su transición de este viaje de aprendizaje al siguiente capítulo de sus vidas.

Habiendo construido una base educativa sólida, estamos seguros de que nuestros graduados están preparados para su futuro. Sabemos que serán empleados calificados, alumnos de transferencia capaces y preparados, y ciudadanos perspicaces que contribuirán en gran medida a sus comunidades. En Antelope Valley College, tenemos éxito cuando nuestros alumnos y socios de la comunidad tienen éxito. Con orgullo decimos que AVC ¡SIRVE!

Esta noche, la Junta Directiva, la Administración, la Facultad y los Profesionales Clasificados del Distrito Antelope Valley Community College se unen a las familias y amigos de esta clase de graduados para celebrar sus logros, y sabemos que su futuro está lleno de promesas.

Degrees and honors designations

The degrees and honors designation are based on the student's performance prior to the completion of the most recent term. The final degrees in honored designation will be determined once all requirements are met. Students wearing a gold tassel are recognized as students with designation. Students names in bold type indicate that they have a permanent membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma California Community College Honor Scholarship Society.

Academic regalia and the academic mace

The origins of the academic cap and gown can be traced back to the first European colleges and universities during the Middle Ages.

At the time, most of the schools were for theologians, so students and teachers adopted the standard clerical dress of the time:

- The cappa—a plain, ankle-length cassock
- A biretta—a stiff, square cap with a tuft on top

The cappa was a simple gown and least costly, thus it was considered most appropriate for clerical students. Initially, the gown colors indicated ecclesiastical rank or a particular order, with scholars and lesser clergy wearing black.

By the mid-1500s, individual colleges and universities adopted gowns with distinctive shapes and colors. As for the biretta, its shape changed to a “mortar board” in the 1800s as institutions sought to standardize the shape and size of the upper part of the headpiece.

The “mortar board” style itself can be traced to the Middle Ages as the guild of masons would wear hats representing an aspect of their trade—in this case, the boards on which they mixed mortar—to festive ceremonies.

The tuft on the biretta evolved into the modern tassel.

The colorful academic hoods worn by faculty, trustees and administrators at today’s ceremony, are merely a modern variation of a tippet—a long, black scarf worn over a robe hundreds of years ago to keep a person warm. The hood, now elongated to hang down the back, reflects the academic background of the wearer.

Tassels and hoods worn by faculty and officials contain colors reflecting the academic background of each person:

Arts, letters, humanities.....	white
Business.....	drab
Economics.....	copper
Education.....	light blue
Engineering.....	orange
Fine arts.....	brown
Library science.....	lemon
Music.....	pink
Nursing.....	apricot
Philosophy.....	dark blue
Physical education.....	sage green
Science.....	golden yellow
Social work.....	citron

The master’s hood is pointed; the doctor’s hood is bell shaped. The border of the hood indicates the scholar’s department; the lining emblazons his or her school colors. Borders are made of satin for masters and velvet for doctors.

Gowns of masters and doctors also have differences. The master’s gown has pointed sleeves slit at the elbows. A doctor’s gown has wide lapels of velvet, either black or the color of the scholar’s specialization. The sleeves are full and bell-shaped. There are three velvet chevrons, either black or colored like the lapels.

The academic scepter, or mace, was one of the earliest distinctive signs of medieval university officials. The mace was originally a wooden staff carried by royal messengers. In the 15th century it became symbolic of academic dignity. By the 16th century, the mace, a symbol of authority, was embraced as a ceremonial object by colleges and universities.

Students today are also wearing either academic stoles and/or academic cords signifying their program of study or their groups of affiliation while at ACV. These signs of recognition and acknowledgment communicate to the campus their relationship and outstanding success.

Distinguished Alumni 2023

Christopher Kowalski

Christopher graduated from the Antelope Valley College Registered Nursing program in 2014. Christopher works as a Trauma Clinical Coordinator at Antelope Valley Medical Center. Over the years, he has received several accreditations from various hospitals by going above and beyond his usual call of duties in the trauma field.

Christopher volunteers his time by giving lessons at the local YMCA on handling possible drownings, gives trauma seminars at AVC, and supports the California Highway Patrol by visiting local high schools to teach driving safety. Christopher also finds the time in his busy schedule to coach soccer at Quartz Hills High School. He has three children with his wife.

Cindy Vargas

Cindy Vargas is currently a Kinesiology Instructor, Assistant Athletic Director, and Head Softball coach at Antelope Valley College. During her time at AVC, Cindy was named the Antelope Valley College Scholar-Athlete of the Year and received the state-wide Pepsi Scholar-Athlete award. She was inducted into the AVC Whit Carder Marauder Athletics Hall of Fame as a player in 2009.

After graduating from AVC, Cindy continued to play softball at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo. She went on to earn her bachelor's degree and then her master's degree at Azusa Pacific University. Cindy began teaching for six years at her alma mater, Quartz Hill High School.

She is in her 19th year of teaching and 22nd year of coaching softball at AVC. During her 25 years in education, she has served on various committees and as a department chair. She has coached numerous student-athletes who have transferred on to play softball and continue their education at four-year universities. Cindy has a love and passion for teaching, coaching, and making an impact in the community.
