A Message from Superintendent/President Jennifer Zellet, PhD

Thank you for joining us this evening as we celebrate the achievements of our graduates. Our students could not have achieved this milestone without the ongoing support of family, friends and their community. Antelope Valley College is both grateful and proud to support these graduates as they transition from this learning journey to the next chapter in their lives.

Having built a solid educational foundation, we are certain that our graduates are prepared for their futures. We know that they will be skilled employees, able and ready transfer students, and discerning citizens who contribute greatly to their communities. At Antelope Valley College, we succeed when our students and community partners succeed. We proudly say AVC SERVES!

Tonight, the Antelope Valley Community College District Board of Trustees, Administration, Faculty and Classified Professionals join with families and friends of this graduating class to celebrate their accomplishments, and we know their future is full of promise.

Mensaje de Jennifer Zellet, PhD, Superintendente/Presidenta

Gracias por acompañarnos esta tarde en la celebración de los logros de nuestros graduados. Nuestros estudiantes no podrían haber logrado este logro sin el apoyo continuo de la familia, amigos y su comunidad. Antelope Valley College está agradecido y orgulloso de apoyar a estos graduados en su transición de este viaje de aprendizaje al siguiente capítulo de sus vidas.

Habiendo construido una base educativa sólida, estamos seguros de que nuestros graduados están preparados para su futuro. Sabemos que serán empleados calificados, alumnos de transferencia capaces y preparados, y ciudadanos perspicaces que contribuirán en gran medida a sus comunidades. En Antelope Valley College, tenemos éxito cuando nuestros alumnos y socios de la comunidad tienen éxito. Con orgullo decimos que ¡AVC SERVES!

Esta noche, la Junta Directiva, la Administración, la Facultad y los Profesionales Clasificados del Distrito Antelope Valley Community College se unen a las familias y amigos de esta clase de graduados para celebrar sus logros, y sabemos que su futuro está lleno de promesas.

Degrees and honors designations

The degrees and honors designation are based on the student's performance prior to the completion of the most recent term. The final degrees in honored designation will be determined once all requirements are met. Students wearing a gold tassel are recognized as students with designation. Students names in bold type indicate that they have a permanent membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma California Community College Honor Scholarship Society.

Academic regalia and the academic mace

The origins of the academic cap and gown can be traced back to the first European colleges and universities during the Middle Ages.

At the time, most of the schools were for theologians, so students and teachers adopted the standard clerical dress of the time:

- The cappa—a plain, ankle-length cassock
- A biretta—a stiff, square cap with a tuft on top

The cappa was a simple gown and least costly, thus it was considered most appropriate for clerical students. Initially, the gown colors indicated ecclesiastical rank or a particular order, with scholars and lesser clergy wearing black.

By the mid-1500s, individual colleges and universities adopted gowns with distinctive shapes and colors. As for the biretta, its shape changed to a “mortar board” in the 1800s as institutions sought to standardize the shape and size of the upper part of the headpiece.

The “mortar board” style itself can be traced to the Middle Ages as the guild of masons would wear hats representing an aspect of their trade—in this case, the boards on which they mixed mortar—to festive ceremonies.

The tuft on the biretta evolved into the modern tassel.

The colorful academic hoods worn by faculty, trustees and administrators at today’s ceremony, are merely a modern variation of a tippet—a long, black scarf worn over a robe hundreds of years ago to keep a person warm. The hood, now elongated to hang down the back, reflects the academic background of the wearer.

Tassels and hoods worn by faculty and officials contain colors reflecting the academic background of each person:

Arts, letters, humanities.....	white
Business.....	drab
Economics.....	copper
Education.....	light blue
Engineering.....	orange
Fine arts.....	brown
Library science.....	lemon
Music.....	pink
Nursing.....	apricot
Philosophy.....	dark blue
Physical education.....	sage green
Science.....	golden yellow
Social work.....	citron

The master’s hood is pointed; the doctor’s hood is bell shaped. The border of the hood indicates the scholar’s department; the lining emblazons his or her school colors. Borders are made of satin for masters and velvet for doctors.

Gowns of masters and doctors also have differences. The master’s gown has pointed sleeves slit at the elbows. A doctor’s gown has wide lapels of velvet, either black or the color of the scholar’s specialization. The sleeves are full and bell-shaped. There are three velvet chevrons, either black or colored like the lapels.

The academic scepter, or mace, was one of the earliest distinctive signs of medieval university officials. The mace was originally a wooden staff carried by royal messengers. In the 15th century it became symbolic of academic dignity. By the 16th century, the mace, a symbol of authority, was embraced as a ceremonial object by colleges and universities.

Students today are also wearing either academic stoles and/or academic cords signifying their program of study or their groups of affiliation while at AVC. These signs of recognition and acknowledgment communicate to the campus their relationship and outstanding success.

Distinguished Alumni 2026

Marvin Crist

Marvin Crist has served the Lancaster community since joining the City Council in 2010 and being appointed Vice Mayor in 2012. A lifelong Antelope Valley resident, Marvin studied business at Antelope Valley College and has dedicated his career to public service, from firefighting to operating his own insurance brokerage.

His commitment to the community extends well beyond City Hall through leadership, volunteerism, and support of local causes including the Antelope Valley Sheriff Boosters, Animal House, Lancaster's Love Your City cleanup efforts, and other cherished community traditions. He has been recognized with honors such as Volunteer of the Year from Desert Christian Schools, Lancaster Sheriff's Booster of the Year, AV EDGE's Navigating Change Award and just recently Law Day recognized him with the Lifetime Public Safety Achievement Award.

David J. Vierra, Ph.D.

David J. Vierra, Ph.D., is a seasoned educational leader and consultant with more than four decades of experience across K–12 education, higher education, and community leadership. He currently serves as an education consultant advising boards and superintendents on governance, policy, leadership development, and organizational alignment.

Dr. Vierra previously served as Superintendent of the Antelope Valley Union High School District from 2002 to 2021, where he championed instructional innovation, fiscal responsibility, and equity. In addition to his K–12 leadership, he has contributed to higher education as an adjunct instructor, mentoring doctoral students and teaching educational leadership. His professional and civic involvement includes work with organizations such as the Association of California School Administrators, the Urban Superintendents Association of America, the California School Boards Association—and community groups which included the Antelope Valley Board of Trade, American Cancer Society, United Way, and Antelope Valley Medical Center Foundation, reflecting a career dedicated to preparing students, educators, and communities for success in a changing world.
