

What Can I Do with This Major?

Administration of Justice

The Administration of Justice Program involves the study of the theory and practice of law enforcement, police work, the court, and corrections. Law enforcement, whether as a police officer, deputy sheriff, probation officer, or state traffic officer, offers a rewarding opportunity to serve society. Specialized officers such as game wardens, forest rangers, or criminal investigators make unique contributions throughout our country. They investigate crime, present cases in court, and render other services to the justice system and the people. The administration of justice courses provides the student with a broad base of knowledge, understanding, and proficiency in the general area.

AVC Certificates & Degrees

- Administration of Justice associate degree and Associate Degree for Transfer
- Community Modern Policing certificate (non-credit)
- Health and Fitness for First Responders certificate (non-credit)
- Modern Policing associate degree

Examples of Work Industries & Employers

Law Enforcement
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Drug Enforcement Agency
U.S. Marshals

U.S. Customs
Forensic Science
Immigration and Naturalization Services
Correctional Agencies

Security Agencies/Management
Juvenile Detention Centers
Domestic Violence Agencies
Schools

Possible Job Titles may require a bachelor's degree or higher

Police Officer
Deputy Sheriff
Highway Patrol Officer
Correctional Officer
Customs Officer
FBI Agent

Fraud Investigator
Probation Officer
Border Patrol Officer
Security Officer
Loss Prevention Officer
Evidence Technician

DEA Agent
CIA Agent
Secret Service Agent
Detective
Private Investigator
Dispatcher

The information reflected is intended to act as a tool for exploration. Please visit the Career Center for more specific information on majors and careers.