Fire Technology

The Fire Technology program is designed to prepare students to work as firefighters and to provide an opportunity for those now working in this field to upgrade their skills. This program is made up of courses conforming to the recommended Uniform Fire Technology Curriculum of the California Community College System. Upon completion of the UFTC, professional firefighters should plan to enroll in appropriate programs at Regional Training Centers sponsored by the California Fire Academy System.

AVC Certificates & Degrees

- Fire Technology certificate and associate degree
- Firefighter I Academy certificate
- Wildland Firefighter certificate and associate degree
- Wildland Firefighter Academy certificate

Examples of Work Industries & Employers

Fire Protection Services	Industrial Safety Agencies	Law Enforcement Agencies
Forestry Agencies	Industrial Fire Brigade	Plant Protection Services
Hazardous Materials Services	Health and Safety Agencies

Possible Job Titles may require a bachelor's degree or higher

Municipal Firefighter	Fire Inspector/Investigator	Fire Captain
Forestry Technician	Health & Safety Inspector	Industrial Safety Engineer
Wildland Firefighter	Hazardous Materials Agent

The information reflected is intended to act as a tool for exploration. Please visit the Career Center for more specific information on majors and careers.