Due to unforeseen circumstances, a seminar may be cancelled at the last minute. Participants will not get any credit or a make-up for a missed seminar.

IMPORTANT, PLEASE READ:

All one-day seminars are "first come, first served" until class reaches full capacity at which time the seminar will be closed. Maximum student enrollment will vary according to classroom size, as determined by current fire marshal and college regulations.

Students are expected to conduct themselves in a respectful manner with other students, the instructor and other college personnel. The instructor has the right to dismiss any participant, without any credit given, if he or she feels they are not abiding by the rules and are disrupting the class. Conversations should be confined to class discussion topics. All electronic devices must remain off while you are in the classroom. Phone use should be confined to class breaks, however, emergency situations that may require your attention during class should be brought to the attention of the instructor. Students entering 15 minutes after class begins or leaving class before the end, will not receive credit for attendance. Due to campus safety regulations, NO CHILDREN or NON-STUDENTS are permitted in the classroom or on campus.

Transcripts will be issued upon verification of class completion. Transcripts need to be ordered 48 hours in advance by calling (661) 722-6300, ext. 6500. Transcripts can be picked up in CDC 118. Photo ID will be required to pick up transcripts.
