

What is the Books H.E.L.P. (Help Enhance Learning Possibilities) Program?

Books H.E.L.P. is a program funded by the AVC Foundation, STEM Grant, Student Equity Grant, and donors to help eligible Antelope Valley College students borrow course textbooks until the agreed return date, free of charge.

Who is Eligible?

To be eligible for the Books H.E.L.P. Program, students must be:

1. Currently be enrolled as an AVC Student.
2. Currently registered in the class for which the book is required.
3. Have a 50% or higher completion rate.
4. Be in good academic standing with a 2.00 GPA or higher.
5. Have a current Education Plan and on track for degree/certificate completion.
6. FAFSA/DREAM ACT/FINANCIAL AID VERIFICATION OF FUNDS FORM/AB540 application completed at the AVC Financial Aid office for the academic year that books are requested.
7. Submit a complete online Books H.E.L.P. application by the deadline.
8. No prior penalties within the Books H.E.L.P. program.

Students are served on a first come first served basis according to each individual's needs and Books H.E.L.P. ranking criteria. Students must apply each semester.

NOTE: Books H.E.L.P. Committee has the right to deny the application at any time.

Prior to beginning the application you should have available to you:

*Student ID Number

*AVC Email Address

*Your Class Schedule (CRN, Course Name, & Instructor)

Be Logged into your AVC Email (You will not be able to access the application if not logged into your AVC Email)

* NOTE: If the faculty member has not submitted their book request to the bookstore, the book will not show on the book listing. That is out of our control and the committee may not be able to provide those textbooks.
