3.2 ASO Activities

Senator Gold talked about the award for the Associated Student Inspirational Faculty Award. ICC overwhelmingly chose Dr. Matthew Jaffe with over 50% approval. Senator Robinson asked why there is only one award and not a few, but the reason why (discussed by Senator Gold) was because there was no need, or time for that matter, to commemorate more than one instructor. He did ask for support from ICC in choosing an instructor with the qualifications that are stated with the award. ICC and a majority, chose Dr. Matthew Jaffe. Senator Gold and the advisor suggest that the current ASO pass some ideas down to the new ASO on how they can present another award for next semester. With that stated Student Trustee Perkins suggested that we make a file on MyAVC to put all information about this semester in ASO for the new ASO in an effort to pass information of previous activities and transactions to the new executive board of ASO. Senator Gold moves to award Dr. Jaffe with the award. Senator Robinson seconded. Motion passes. 3/0/0.

The Advisor mentioned that the reservation for the hotel rooms in San Diego was too late and so Mandy found a different one two miles further. There was a small issue in which she pointed out, whether the three women and three men would feel comfortable sharing the two rooms, one room for the men (Brady Williams, Ariel Saliva-Sclank, Alex Rocha) and one room for the women (Harmony Perkins, Danielle Lincors, Laura Ullrich) and one room for the Advisor Michelle Hernandez. Zenani Doyle has a designated caretaker attending with so she will have her own room. Once Mandy makes the reservation the students that signed must go, if they cannot they must reimbursement the college district for any costs. To use Student Representations, it is requires that the participants must complete a minimum of two pages of what the student learned and how that knowledge would help there success as a student leader. The paper is due in one week time once they return.

3.3 Community Reports

Senator Robinson talked about the Student Lounge and some renovations that need to take place. He stated that certain items need to be replaced such as the game equipment and the locking cabinet that store the games. The floor either needs to be replaced or at the least cleaned, tape needs to be taken off the windows, and the television must be replaced. The television is about 7 years old and should be replaced right before the fall semester begins so as not to be damaged before its usage. The couches also must be steamed cleaned or replaced. There was an account for this purpose that holds $1000, the President suggests that we put that money and include more money for that purpose.

Senator Robinson wanted to know if he could help in renovating the floor, but is too big of an issue for the current ASO to deal with and must be carried out to the new ASO.

Senator Gold discussed that the constitutional committee is almost done and could be carried to the new ASO.

IV. REPORTS

Advisor's Report – Dr. Zimmerman thanked Senator Gold with his work on the ASO Elections this year. The Advisor reported that some students who had gone out to business on behalf of AVC to provide student discounts. They did not have the authority to do so. They have certainly misrepresented themselves and this is fraud. There was a slight connection with ASO because previous ASO Presidents have said it was ok. She also stated that the President's power ends when it expires. Previous students do not have the power to use the ASO when their President's term was over. Additionally ASO has some authority if the issues come through an official ASO meeting otherwise ASO have no authority.

The Advisor thanks Student Trustee Perkins and her committee for throwing a well planned End of the Year Recognition Ceremony Event.

The Advisor also passed around a thank you from Mark Branner for sponsoring the elementary schools visits of Cootie Shots.

The Advisor also was disappointed to see that there was no effort for the budget of ASO for next year. The Board of Trustees meeting is on May 8th. May 31st is the last day that Mandy will accept for any expenditure for this year. Without a budget for next year there will be no expenditures.
