3.2 Model United Nations Grant

President Cabral presented to ASO that the Model United Nations club would need money to attend their next conference. VPAA Thomas began the discussion on the topic. Thomas stated his opinions on how much money we may need to save for sake of the whole year. Senator Ellis wondered if MUN was the only club that actually asked for money during this time frame.

Moved to approve $1500 to be allocated to Model United Nations by VPCA Sewell, seconded by VPAA Thomas, Motion failed 2/0/12.

Discussion was continued as to how much should be allocated.

Moved to approve $2000 to Model United Nations for their Las Vegas Conference, by Treasurer Blanton, seconded by VPCA Sewell, Motion Pass 14/0/0.

3.3 ASO Conferences

Senator Ellis talked to ASO about the attendance of the Region 6 conferences.

3.4 ASO Activities

President Cabral prepared a schedule and survey list for the ice cream social. He requested that we help complete and prepare everything for the social.

VPSS Randolph requested to be the one who contacts our vendors that will be attending the event. She also wondered what we were doing to advertise the event. Cabral stated that Johnatan had been working on posters to hang around campus.

VPCA Sewell also announced that she had still been working on getting students registered to vote.

3.5 ASO Goals

Angel Food Ministries is still a goal that we have been working on. VPAA Thomas has been trying very hard to stay in contact with the individual involved with the drive.

President Cabral stated that we still need to continue promoting the ASO sticker. Cabral would also like to see us all try to get more businesses to become a part of our ASO sticker promotion.

Senator Ellis stated that we should all try to get at least one business per person.

One of the goals from last year was the ASO Cookbook. The student who was in charge of that is no longer on ASO and there is no one to follow through with that activity.

Point of Personal Privilege taken by VPAA Shunnon Thomas at 7:50 a.m.
