1.6 Financial Report:

No financial report

II. PUBLIC FORUM:

Kimbirly went over the importance of reading the emails sent out to everyone. This is how we know when we will have meetings, where to go for our committee meetings, and how to know what is happening on campus. Reminded everyone to please make sure that they attend their participatory governance committee meetings. Both Elizabeth Montoya and Stephanie Aceves have both resigned.

III. STANDING BUSINESS:

3.1 ASO Appointments:

Kimbirly asked for someone to help sit on the Oasis Committee Meetings. They can set a different day and time for the meetings to make sure it works for all members. Marjorie Marquez and Krystal Garza are interested in being on this committee.

IV. NEW BUSINESS:

4.1 Student Worker Staff Parking Pass

Marjorie Marquez stated that she has talked with some of the student workers in the OSD office and they stated that they have difficulties with finding parking to get to both work and the classes where they help out the other students. She suggested that we advocate helping provide student workers with the staff parking pass to help them find a parking space while they are at work.

Marjorie Marquez moved to write a resolution to help provide AVC Student workers with a Staff Parking Pass. Krystal Garza seconded. Brian Merino objected.
