II. PUBLIC FORUM

Shannon Thomas – AVC Student

You should all come to the board meeting next week; especially if you have an interest in your college. If there are scholarships available they are on myAVC. I was the only one the applied for a certain scholarship. It is sad to say all of these opportunities not being used. Go check it out.

III. REPORTS

Advisor: Dr. Z – Thank you all for coming today. Good luck on Finals. Thursday is finals relaxation day with your current AVC ID you can get a free back massage.

On another note, I have not seen any pictures submitted from any of the clubs, plus any accomplishments. I am looking for two or three quick bullets to go along with the pictures. In your last meeting with your club and advisor make a list of bullets for your accomplishments. It is easy. Please send me an email to jzimmeran@avc.edu.

I am writing club review so I don't want the Academic Senate and campus to overlook what your clubs do. You as clubs and we as ICC do so many great things and I don't want us to go unnoticed. On another note I am quite aware that with the year winding down it seems as though events begin to pile up, holiday parties etc, to lighten the stress jot a note about possible activities and give them to me ahead of time to avoid confliction in event dates

Attention: Mandy is going on vacation next week. Anyone who needs check requests, you must turn them in by Monday December 8th. Your checks will be given to you by the 9th. This is particular important for the clubs having last minute events.

Chair: John Cabral- Applaud all of the clubs for making it this far and cannot wait to see the new events.

Club Reports:

- Gamers Club: Elected new officers because the president left to the Navy.
- Model United Nations: On Nov. 22nd to the 25th MUN had a conference in Las Vegas and one delegate brought back an award.
- Green Campus: Did not have a meeting and wants more articipation/dedication.

- None
