II. PUBLIC FORUM

SNAC Fall 2011 asks about the deposit receipts for their fundraisers. Dr. Zimmerman responded by telling all clubs that a club member should be present when the accountant counts their cash box, they will be given a receipt/deposit record.

III. REPORTS

Advisor's Report:

Dr. Zimmerman welcomes everyone including re-activating and new clubs. She explains to the new clubs that they will be chartered (approved) after their first meeting and after that, they will have a club account.

Chair's Report:

Karole Obrikat:

Due to time restrictions, clubs will be using the online download Club Activation-Re Activation form until this business of the PDF is resolved. In addition, all clubs are to add member's 900 numbers to the application for verification. Welcome Week went well, but we would have liked to see more club presence and participation at future events. Hispanic

Heritage Day is Sept. 15, and we will have tables for clubs to use for awareness and fund raising, just RSVP a table and SAC will hold one for them.

Club Reports:

SNAC Spring 2011 raised $517 from BINGO and Dr. Phil.

SNAC Fall 2011: Made $200 on their Garage Sale in one day.

Alpha Iota: their Aug. 20, Instructor Breakfast Welcome Back fundraiser yielded $267 in profits.
