II. PUBLIC FORUM

Sandra Govin informed the clubs that ASO's upcoming Leadership Workshop, themed: LEADERS FOR ALL SEASONS, will be held on November 19, 2010 in the Student Lounge, and asked that all clubs send one or two people for Leadership training and certification. She handed out registration forms and flyers with information and instructions for registration.

III. REPORTS

Advisor's Report:

Dr. Zimmerman: Introduced Dr. Louis Lucero to the group and explained that he will be serving as Interim Dean of Student Development and Service while she is on vacation; in addition, since her last day of work is tomorrow, she reminded clubs that all check requests must be turned in by tomorrow, November 5 because Dr. Lucero is not a check signer.

Dr. Zimmerman would like to see at least two club members to participate in the Leadership Workshop; the goal is to have at least 40 participants.

November 11, is the last day to drop a class without a W, and all club officers must have at least 5 units. She is going to be out of the country for the month of November and will be returning on Nov. 29. Please do not hesitate to contact Dr. Lucero if you have any questions.

Chair Report:

Karole Obrikat wishes to reiterate the importance of the Leadership Workshops because certification from this esteemed, nationally recognized gives credibility to students and not only helps clubs, but is highly useful to students when applying to universities and scholarships. We had a great turn out at Dia de los Muertos on Tuesday. Thanks Skills Club for their help.

CLUB REPORTS

Alpha Iota: Reports that AGS Fall Convention on 10/30 at Citrus College was a success.

On 10/23 they also held a car wash at Louis Burger; their Candy Sale was a sell-out. They are planning to host a dinner at the Lancaster Shelter. They plan to do their SARS Blanket give away. The Bags for Kids activity will also help teddy bears for children who have been abused, and are looking for donations to help fund this activity: bagsforkids.org.

ASL@AVC: Reports that their Silent Game Night on 10/15 yielded $226 from 75 players. Also, event on 10/15 with author of Deaf President Now, and presenter, Dr. Angel Ramos' visit from Washington DC, yielded $747; 160 people attended.

Club Checkmate: Reports that their membership is slowly building, and their officer positions are filling up as well. They are looking for a permanent advisor, and both club president Brian Taylor and Dr. Zimmerman thank Professor Alex Webster for his help as a fill-in advisor.

CNSA: Reports that the California Conference was interesting, and informative. They are excited about having a speaker at their next event who will lecture on wound care.

Skills Club: Sold candy and drinks at the Dia de los Muertos on Tuesday.

AVC Gamers: Announce that their last meeting and Game Day is tomorrow, and they plan on meeting in intersession.

PSO: Reports that they are still planning the movie night on November 10 from 5-7 p.m. that they could not have during Halloween in the Student Lounge; the film is Sugar Island.

MUN: Reports that they leave tomorrow to UCSB for two days; their topics are North and South Korea. Everyone at the meeting applauded their last success at the Conference of bringing home 7 awards, and fell short of one from the most awards. MUN is ready for fierce competition.

Club Advisor's Report: Professor Webster reports that Club Checkmate's numbers were half the turnout at the last gaming night. AVC Gamers will be meeting during Intersession and have their spring facilities requests approved and filed. Tomorrow's last game day will include videos, card games, chess, and more.
