II. PUBLIC FORUM

Si Se Puede- is seeking out an advisor to have meetings this Thursday and Friday. Was also wondering if they need to get approval to hold meetings over the summer. The ICC Chair advised them only if they need a facilities request which needs to be filled out a week in advance. Recommended using the College Library.

III. DISCUSSION ITEMS

3.1 Mini Club Rush Report

There were 97 participants that took part at the event. Even though there were not enough clubs that took part but ones that did interacted significantly with the students. It was animus that students be more engaged with clubs on campus. They wanted to see more activities and community events with established clubs. ASL@AVC had a lot of interested bodies desiring more information about Deaf Studies. While the Nursing Clubs are primarily exclusive and rarely promote themselves. Interesting enough students expressed interest in changing their majors to nursing. Si Se Puede experienced student interest in Hispanic culture. The ICC Chair is eager to get started planning Club Rush for the Fall Semester. In addition to doing presentations and get involved with other organizations. Clubs were asked what they liked about the Mini Club Rush.

-Skills USA mentioned they liked that it was well structured and put together. Clubs and students really intermingled unlike before. Clubs that participated were required to more sociable and the ice cream floats were key ingredient.

-ASL@AVC commented how surprised they that many students were unaware that the event was taking place that day. Also make several trips back and forth to get and pass out programs relating information about their club. ICC has to make more concerted effort to communicate about social events on campus. Nancy Blundell mentioned there bulletin board in the hallway of the Bookstore where clubs that have approved flyers and post them and hopefully garner attention about their special events.

3.2 Constitution and Bylaws Report

A committee has convened to strengthen the bylaws and constitution of ICC. As it stands now the only guide if you miss three meetings your club gets deactivated. Expect to see ICC run much differently in the semesters to come. It will no longer be lax daisy but more strict on things like attendance and following through with club events. In the past clubs had events and did not attend them disturbing the flow of Facilities busy schedule. They have been good to the clubs by setting up chairs, tables and tents. We do not want sever the relationship with them. In the new Constitution there will be rules implemented for clubs that break them. For instance if clubs miss two meetings they will be put on probation which means that there account will be frozen, prohibited from holding events and no use of facilities with the exception of their meeting room. After three absences the clubs will then be deactivated. There is process were clubs can petition to have their clubs reactivated. If anyone is interested in giving your input to this committed please email Noemi Bustamante and she will contact you when the committee meets again.

IV. ACTION ITEM

4.1 Club Rush

It was thought that ICC had budget for $ 2,000 is not that amount but lower than previous thought. However, it crucial that the club council have a sufficient budget to do activities in Fall and Spring. There will be another ICC that is 30 minutes long to discuss an appropriate budget for ICC events. Noemi Bustamante plans to talk ASO to allocate more funding.

A committee was formed to plan the Fall Club Rush. The committee consists of Noemi Bustamante, David Durost, Aerick Watson, and Cameron Caballero.
