II. PUBLIC FORUM

Angelina Alvarez with Valley Oasis wanted to set up a time with clubs educate on the policy and procedures of the campus and educate their club members. The education will be regarding sexual harassment with rights of the victim and the accused and what you can do if you see something take place to keep this a safe campus. The meeting can be as long as the club needs from 5-60 mins. She can be reached at aalvarez4@avc.edu or by office phone 661-949-6143. Dr. Zimmerman wanted to add this is a good opportunity for clubs to get educated and have a purpose of how to make change on campus.

III. STANDING BUSINESS

3.1 Study Jam Event Feedback

Of the students who attended the event they really enjoyed it. Most found out by walking up to the event themselves. Students said it wasn't advertised very well. The students that did attend said they enjoyed the atmosphere and the glad to have the food and drinks to help them study. Clubs decided to host the Finals Study Jam sessions December 1st, 2nd, and 3rd. There will be two times the event will run: Mornings 8am-12pm and 4pm-8pm all three days. Sociology Club volunteered and had a good turn out the first day of the event. We looked into working on advertising better for the Finals Study Jam event.
