IV. New Business

4.1 Recruitment Tips

On page 14 of the Club Handbook gives you tips on how to recruit new members. Make you and your fellow club members understand what your club is about. This is very important when pitching your club to possible new members. Sell your club by wearing t-shirts and have business cards to handout. Get people involved and let them know how being active in a club has helped you as student. Hold a special welcoming meeting for new students once a month. Do an ice breaker and make them feel welcomed.

4.2 Give out list of Fundraising tips

Since Clubs are no longer have to sell food on campus. We must get creative with other ways to fundraise. One way would be to sell you Club t-shirts. If you are putting AVC's logo on the shirt it must be approved by Dr. Zimmermann

4.3 Have People In Your Club? What Now?

Do a quick ice breaker before the meeting. Make sure to mingle with new students and integrate with groups. Have them sit by you at the meeting.

V. REPORTS

5.3 Club Reports

AVC STEM Club – Science Olympiad was a great success. Planning go to Cal Tech for the state competition to help out as judges and student workers.
